No act of kindness

is ever wasted

Thank you for Your Kind Generosity

Thank you parents for your kind donations to Harvest Festival.

All of your offerings were donated to the Brixton Foodbank.

How are you?

We kindly ask parents dropping and collecting children to and from school using vehicles, to do so with the utmost care and vigilance.

There have been three reported incidents where our pupils have been endangered by careless driving on Lingham Street. The police have been notified accordingly.

Launch of a New Girl's Club

The Girls Friendly Society (GFS) is launching a new youth group in the heart of Brixton, open to young women aged 10 – 17.

You're invited to the launch event on:

Date: Wednesday 1st November from 6pm – 7:30pm

Venue: Edmundsbury Estate Community Hall, 171 Ferndale Rd, Brixton, SW9 8FQ

RVSP to: brixton@girlsfriendlysociety.org.uk

This will be a chance to meet GFS staff and volunteer group leaders. They will provide light refreshments, an opportunity to network with local youth leaders, service providers, dignitaries and even a chance to try out their fun activities.

The youth group will meet Wednesday evenings during term time from 5:30pm – 7pm and focus on a range of fun activities from arts and crafts, getting active to learning about healthy relationships, mental health and wellbeing.

We ask each girl for a weekly £1 donation as subs to cover the costs of materials, but if they can't afford that they will still be able to attend.

Girls Friendly Society has almost 150 years' experience in supporting young women develop new friendships in a safe, single-sex environment building their confidence and self-esteem along the way. Link to website
