Hip Hop Rap Day Thursday 12th October

We are excited to welcome back Silas Zephania for a thrilling day packed with workshops.

To complete the day, parents and carers of children from Key Stage 2 are invited to attend an extra event.

They will be able to hear some of the raps created by the children in a special performance.

Sing Victory

The St Andrew's 'Victory Singers' will be singing 'Victory' at a special service held at St Andrew's Church and lead by the Bishop of Southwark.

If your child would like to come and sing with group, they are welcome to come along.

Please note that to take part, children need to attend church in full school uniform and must be accompanied by a parent for the duration of the service.

St Michael's Art Festival

As part of the community of St Michaels Stockwell, pupils, parents and cares can buy discounted tickets to the St Michaels Arts Festival. The ticket allows access to any event over the festival period.

There is also an interactive version of Shakespeare's Macbeth, presented by Sky Blue Theatre, this performance is suitable for pupils in KS2. Tickets for this event are available to St Andrew's pupils for £3.00.

If you are interested in either £10.00 festival tickets or £3.00 Macbeth tickets, please speak to Ms Coward.
