Sportastic!

We are excited to show you how much we love sport at St Andrew's and to share all our sporting achievements and news.

It gives us even greater pleasure to share exciting news about the fantastic individual achievements of some of our pupils. These children, through hard work and dedication, have excelled in activities that they do in their spare time.

Here we showcase just a few.

Carta has been signed to Chelsea Football Club; Zachary has been signed to Arsenal Football Club and Jayden-Rae has been signed to Crystal Palace Football Club.

We are so proud of these boys and will be following their development very closely over the next few years.

Do send in any photographs of your child's achievements or hobbies, so we can celebrate them in future issues.

Our 'fab' football teams KS1 and KS2 (Y1&2 and Y3&4) recently participated in The Enthuse Kids Football Tournament.

We are really proud of their achievements and they had an amazing time with KS1 taking 3rd place and KS2 winning 1st place.

No trip to Wimbledon is complete without strawberries! St Andrew's pupils were visible at Wimbledon Court No 1 on Monday, enjoying a punnet or two.

The children had a fantastic time and so did Ms Sue.

Sportsday

8th July 2022

Slade Gardens

Stockwell Park Rd, London, SW9 0DB

9.30—12.00 pm

We will have lunch at Slade Gardens if the weather is nice, so bring your picnic. Don't forget to enter the Parents Races!

Why is reading so important for a child?

Reading allows children to understand various emotions. This helps in their emotional and social development since they learn to associate their feelings with words and find a way to express themselves better. Books showcase various characters and perspectives which allows children to be more empathetic.
