BANK HOLIDAY

Monday 8th May

👑 BANK HOLIDAY 👑

Y5 are pictured here wearing the different coloured poppies that commemorate those who lost their lives in conflict during and since the Great War.

The traditional red poppy represents this sacrifice.

The Black Poppy Rose commemorates the contributions of black, African and Caribbean communities.

The white poppy represents peace and the purple reminds us that animals were also casualties of war.

At 11 am this morning, the whole school held a 2 minute silence in remembrance.
