Please remember parents and carers that you are committing an offence if your child doesn't attend school regularly.

If your child's attendance is 92% or less, we may ask for medical evidence for any period of illness reported by a parent/carer.

If your child fails to attend school due to illness on the last day of term, or the first day of the new term, you must provide medical evidence.

Pupils should never miss school for reasons like shopping, birthdays or to wait in for a repair person.

If your child is to be absent from school for any unavoidable reason, please telephone the school office before 10.00 am.

Golden Day

Friday Stay 'n' Play

Last Friday Golden Class held a Stay 'n' Play session. Parents spent the afternoon having a fabulous time learning through play, just like the children.
