St Andrew's CE Achieves Flagship Status (Again)

We are pleased to announce that we have retained our Inclusion Quality Mark (IQM) Flagship Status for another year.

Here are some of the things the assessor said about the school:

'St Andrew's is a calm, happy, welcoming, and vibrant community, where staff and Governor's work as a team...'

'St Andrew's CE Primary School is truly inclusive...'

'St Andrews offers a creative curriculum and is 'highly committed to promoting creativity through the arts, music and outdoor learning activities.'

'Parents shared their highly positive experiences of St Andrew's and the support that their child/children and themselves had been given. They have found the SENDCo and staff to be very caring, understanding, and supportive and appreciate the open-door policy at the school, which enables them to address any concerns and issues'

'In conclusion, it was a pleasure to visit such a shining example of an IQM Flagship School. The school continues to move from strength to strength in terms of its superb inclusive practice and I am firmly of the opinion that the school fully meets the standard required by the Inclusion Quality Mark to maintain its status as a Flagship School.'

Our Windrush 75

Marvellous Masks!

We had a wonderful Windrush Day.

Yesterday, the children celebrated the contributions made to British history and culture, by members of the Windrush generation, by taking part in several workshops.

Every child had the chance to get involved in the activities and had fun making masks, flags, banana fritters and Coconut Drops.

Some children learned how to play the steel pan drums, whilst others modelled a version of the Empire Windrush out of cardboard.

The day was fun and informative and the children were bright and happy.

We all had a really great day.

Fabulous Flags!

Can you name all the flags featured in this newsletter?
