Y4 and Y5 Visit to the Sri Guru Singh Sabha Gurdwara

As part of their RE studies, our children learn about other religions. Sometimes they are invited to visit interesting places of worship.

This week, Y4 and Y5 visited the Sri Guru Singh Sabha Gurdwara in Southall. A gurdwara is a place of assembly and worship for Sikhs.

The children learned that Sikhs practice the ideals of honesty, humility, compassion and generosity.

Y4 and Y5 take a look at the Guru Granth Sahib, the central holy religious scriptures of Sikhism.

Langar is the name for the communal meal shared by all who attend the gurdwara. This is where those colossal vegetarian meals are prepared.

Poetry in Motion

The children are pictured here, eating their packed lunches in the langar hall.

Four budding writers from Y4 attended the 'Aim High' poetry workshop with poet Neal Zetter.

Class Photographs

Please ensure that your child/ren are smartly dressed in full school uniform.
