Reception Admissions 2024/25

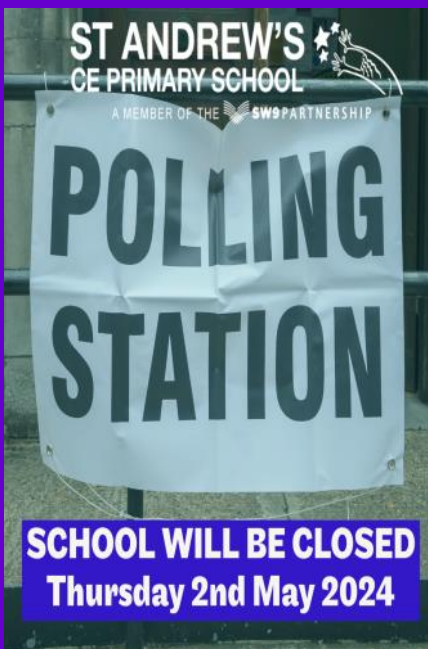

If your child has received an offer from Lambeth Admissions to attend our school in September, please note the following:

If your application was made online you should already have received any necessary information via London Grid for Learning. Alternatively, if you applied by completing a paper Common Application Form you will have received your response by letter.

Please note that the deadline for accepting the offer is Tuesday 30th April if you do not accept your offer by that date, it will be withdrawn and subsequently, your child may be left without a school place in September.

If you, or someone you know, has failed to make an application; made a late application, or has been offered a school that is not their preference and would like to attend St Andrew's, please contact the school office as soon as possible.

Any rejected places will be offered to children on our waiting list.

Anti-Racism Assembly

This week, we had a visit from Mpula from the 'Arise' project.

Mpula came to talk to our children about Racism. She addressed the importance of embracing diversity and standing against all forms of racism

The children took part in an open conversation to promote inclusivity, whilst understanding the consequences of bullying, bad language and exclusion.
