IMPORTANT NOTICE

We understand that many classes have parent WhatsApp groups, and these can be a helpful way to share information and support one another. However, these groups should be used for this purpose only. They are not an appropriate forum for airing grievances or making comments about the school or members of our school community, including parents, pupils, and staff. Sharing rumours, unverified information, or allegations can cause significant harm and distress.

If you have any concerns about the school or something that has happened, please raise them directly with us so that we can address them appropriately. We ask all members of our community to communicate respectfully and responsibly at all times.

World Book Day

As usual our World Book Day was magical. It was a perfect Spring day and the sun shone on our parade.

We would like to thank all our children, parents and carers for making such wonderful costumes.

There were some very clever costumes as well as the usual smattering of super heroes and a posy of princess.

The staff theme this year was 'Fairytales'. We were treated to a couple of Captain Hooks, several big 'Little Red Riding Hoods', a giant 'Little Pig' and a Woodcutter chasing a very suspicious looking Grandma.

World Book Day continued

Parents and carers, thank you for staying to read with the children at Story Time.

Mother's Day Breakfast

Celebrating Motherhood

Mother's Day Breakfast is one of our favourite annual events.

All mums (grans and aunties, sisters) are invited.

Please come along.
