Express Yourself Art Competition

David, Mariana and Georgy from Crown Fine Art, came to school yesterday morning, to take our assembly.

Their company, Crown Fine Art, moves large and expensive pieces of artwork all around the world. David's team are very passionate about art and wanted to share that passion with our children.

Together Crown Fine Art and St Andrew's, have come together, to create a very special art competition—'Express Yourself'.

Each class have chosen a theme based on a subject they are working on in class. They are tasked with producing a piece of art, using any medium, to depict their class theme.

All entries will be collected by the Crown Art Team, they will then judge which ones in each class, should be awarded prizes. Prizes will be awarded to the best two entries in each class.

Each winner will be invited to a day visit to an immersive art experience.

All the art work will be exhibited at our Open Day, so you will be able to see what the children create.

Children can 'express themselves' during the half term, by creating fabulous entries for the competition, based on their class themes.

The deadline for all entries is:

Year 6 are featured here using role play to communicate ideas.

No Pens Day was a great success. Children put down their pens and used language to build learning.

Year 2 have been reading the book 'The Day the Crayons Quit'. They did some drama, where they apologised to the scissors for mistreating them.

The next time Year 2 pick up their pens, it will be to write the scissors a formal apology letter.
