They attended the exhibition 'A Voyage into Maps'.

At their workshop, they explored the maps on show;
became cartographers—creating their own maps.

After that, they found their own way back to school.

Key Changes to Free School Meals Entitlement

Due to changes in the new criteria please note that your eligibility to Free School Meals may change.

The new Free School Meals Criteria states that you are only eligible to Free School Meals if you meet any of the following criteria:

- ♦ Universal Credit: All children in households receiving Universal Credit qualify for a free school meal.
- ♦ support under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- ♦ A pupil is only eligible to receive a free school meal where both:
  - ♦ a claim for this support has been made
  - ♦ their eligibility has been verified by the school where they are enrolled or by the local authority
- ♦ Households may also be entitled to a meal if they:
  - ♦ are in receipt of income-related Employment and Support Allowance
  - ♦ receive the guarantee element of Pension Credit
  - ♦ meet criteria set out in separate guidance for families with no recourse to public funds
- ♦ Targeted FSM- those with household income less than £7400 (new from September)
- ♦ Expanded – those on UC with household income more than £7400

Please note that all schools receive valuable funding for every child in receipt of Free School Meals. Parents who qualify may benefit from exemptions on certain activities such as Holiday Activity and Food Programme/Vouchers.

If you think you may be entitled to FSM please check your eligibility by following the link below

Black History Month

KS1 were treated to an engaging storytelling workshop with Alison Mason. Using music and props, she engaged and delighted the children, by bringing her stories to life.

Her audience were completely captivated by her interactive and entertaining storytelling.

We would very much like to say a big 'thank you' to Alison.
