The Unveiling of the Slatehook Sculpture

Year 5 walked over to Fenwick Estate in Clapham, to attend the unveiling of Bryan Kneale's landmark 1961 sculpture 'Slatehook'.

The sculpture has recently undergone restoration. Our children had some involvement with the programme.

The unveiling was attended by the artist's family members and the Mayor of Lambeth—Paul Valentine and lead by the Director of London Heritage.

Kenzie and Cerrone delivered a speech thanking all those who took part in the process and describing how much St Andrew's children enjoyed taking part.

The restoration was managed and completed by one of Heritage of London Trust's (HOLT) outreach programmes called 'Proud Places. We have agreed to with them on another restoration project in Spring called the 'Bronze Woman'.

odd socks day

Odd Socks Day is coming soon to help us mark Friendship Week. It's a fun, bright, and simple way for children to express their individuality and show that it's okay to be different!

Big Brothers and Sisters Unite

Year 6 girls and boys are pictured here reading stories to their smaller peers.

We think it is lovely to see the oldest Children, unite with the youngest, in such an endearing and valuable way.

Thank you to those parents and carers who have kindly volunteered to escort the children on trips this term.

Your help is greatly appreciated

OUR BLACK HISTORY WORKSHOPS

Year 4 produced some great art work, inspired by the engineer and Nasa Astronaut Mae Jemison.

TECHNOLOGY

Just taking down your particulars!

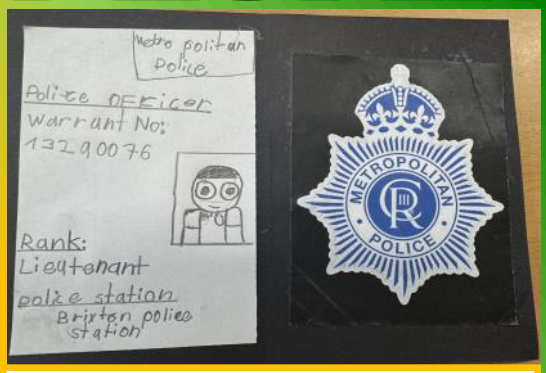

Some of our children learned about John Kent, Britain's first black police constable.

He was born in 1886.

More StA-CE, than CID!

DESIGN

You're under duress!

ART

The children produced some amazing work—but most of all—they had lots of fun whilst learning
